ABOUT DIA

The Directorate of International Affairs (DIA) is the nodal office at GGSIPU for all matters relating to international students, global academic partnerships, and cross-border collaboration. It serves as the University's primary interface with the wider international academic and research community.

The DIA works across three broad areas of engagement. First, it supports and guides international students at every stage of their journey at GGSIPU — from admissions and documentation to campus life and academic integration. Second, it actively builds and nurtures partnerships with universities, research institutions, embassies, and international organisations around the world, facilitating student and faculty exchanges, joint research initiatives, and collaborative academic events. Third, it serves as the University's central resource point for international funding, scholarships, fellowships, and mobility opportunities, helping students and faculty identify relevant avenues and supporting them in the application process.
Through conferences, seminars, cultural exchange events, and international student initiatives, the DIA helps create a truly global learning environment on campus — one in which diverse perspectives enrich the academic and cultural experience of both international and Indian students alike.

GGSIPU's strong international linkages are continuously strengthened through a wide range of academic, cultural, and collaborative initiatives that promote meaningful cross-cultural engagement and enhance the overall student experience.

This global outlook is further reflected in the University's conferences, seminars, webinars, and other academic and cultural activities organised in collaboration with organisations such as the European Union, UNESCO, foreign embassies, and partner universities in India and abroad.
